Edward Wilder, the wealthy retired druggist of Louisville, died last Tuesday.

The Georgia Press Association, one hundred strong, met at Savannah this week.

Two colored men were killed by a railroad collision on the L. & N. at the Nashville depot one day this week.

Gen. Robt. C. Schenck died at Washington Sunday at the age of 81 years. He had been a soldier, a Congressman and Minister to Brazil.

Prof. Richard Dale Owen, of New Harmony, Ind., drank embalming fluid, thinking it was mineral water, and died from the poison last Tuesday.

The House has passed the World's Fair bill. The buildings are to be dedicated Oct. 14, 1892, and the Exposition opened not later than May 1, 1893.

The House committee on Elections has reported against unseating Parrett, of Indiana, and Buchanan, of Virginia. This disposes of seven of the contested cases.

Gov. Buckner has appointed Ed. Porter Thomson, the late Librarian, to succeed Will Griffith as his private secretary. The latter resigned to accept a more lucrative position.

Martin Hodgins, Marshal of Uniontown, who killed one man and wounded another just outside the town limits last November, has been sentenced to 12 years in the penitentiary.

The Democratic Committee of Hopkins county has set April 22 as the time to investigate the charges of fraud at the Earlington precinct, in the late primary. As three nominations depend upon the counting of this precinct, the investigation should have been made at once. If the precinct is to be thrown out—and if the returns were falsified this is the best course to pursue—a new election will have to be called to nominate a Sheriff, Clerk and School Superintendent. This election under the present arrangement could not be held earlier than May, which is a very busy season with everybody and a bad time to hold elections.

The lower house of the Kentucky Legislature, upon being informed of the death of Judge W. L. Jackson, unanimously adopted the following resolution:

"Whereas, This House has heard with sincere regret of the death of Judge Wm. L. Jackson, of the city of Louisville, whose ability as a jurist and whose worth as a man has made his name famous all over Kentucky. Be it Resolved, That this earnest tribute to his memory be spread upon the records of this House; that they may bear testimony to a career singularly pure and honorable, to a name upon which there is no stain, to a gentleman who, in every relation of life, whether on the bench or in the private station, has shown himself a credit to his city and State, and whose death will be felt as a personal loss to all who have come within the circle of his acquaintance. Be it further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to his bereaved family."

This may be taken as a direct rebuke to Gov. Buckner, who made a two-page assault upon Judge Jackson in his message, charging him with unlawfully remitting fines, illegally abstracting money from the treasury, making illegal orders and in various ways violating his oath of office.

"Your Vitalia, for indigestion, dyspepsia, disordered liver, colic, and bowel troubles, it is the best seller we have; those who use it recommend it to others." Every family should keep Vitalia Liver Pills; they are mild and sure, small and sugar-coated; great favorites for biliousness, headache, and constipation. ### LEGISLATIVE MATTERS.

Forty-four new bills were given a start Tuesday in the House.

Mr. Smith introduced a bill to suppress lottery advertisements and publications.

Mr. Norman proposes to change the standard weight of a bushel of coal from 76 lbs. to 80 lbs.

The Committee on Federal Relations had the floor Wednesday and disposed of a number of bills.

The Senate bill chartering the Farmers and Merchants Bank, of Hopkinsville, has passed the House.

Mr. Holland introduced a bill to fine hotel proprietors from $10 to $100 for permitting waiters to receive "tips" from guests.

Mr. H. B. Clark introduced a bill requiring banks to pay a 3 per cent. semi-annual dividend before adding to their surplus funds.

The Senate Committee on Revenue and Taxation has reported unfavorably the bill to tax corporations for the privilege of organizing.

The Senate has passed a bill reducing the pay of assessors from 14 cents to 1 of a cent on the $100 assessed after the second $1,000, which will materially reduce the pay of assessors.

The House killed the Senate bill extending to all sellers of drugs the requirements of the present pharmacy registration law. A bill was passed abolishing the annual registration now required of pharmacists.

The House committee on Banks, Court of Appeals and Superior Court, Public Health, Public Offices and Library, Mines and Mining and Printing had the floor Monday and Tuesday in regular order and disposed of many bills, mostly local.

Mr. Richardson's bills to tax banks came up Wednesday as a special order. The bills provide for taxing bank stock at its par value and was after discussion passed by a vote of 41 to 39. It was then clinched by tabling a motion to reconsider by the same vote.

The committee on re-appointing the Congressional districts has agreed upon a plan and the bill will be offered at once. It makes ten districts absolutely sure for the Democrats by large majorities and gives the Republicans the Eleventh district by 9,000 majority. The only change in the Second district is the addition of Mudlenberg.

The Committee on Printing reported as approving the bill drawn up by Chief Clerk Keller for the benefit of the country newspapers, which was introduced by Mr. Triplett. The bill was designed to regulate the advertisement of the sale of property under order of court or execution, and to provide for the publication of notice of appointment and settlements of administrators, etc., and to fix the compensation for such advertising. The bill was laid on the table by a vote of 86 to 27.

Governor Buckner has sent to the Senate nominations as follows:

Mrs. Mary B. Day, to be State Librarian, in place of Ed. Porter Thompson, resigned.

L. C. Norman, to be Auditor of Public Accounts, in place of Fayette Hewitt, resigned.

C. J. Norwood, to be Inspector of Mines for four years from May 10, 1888.

W. J. Macey, to be State Inspector and Examiner, to fill the unexpired term of Reuben A. Miller, resigned.

Dr. J. W. Whitney, to be Commissioner of the Eastern Lunatic Asylum, in place of Thos. Mitchell, declined.

R. T. Petree, Thos. H. Carless, Geo. W. Shaw, to be Commissioners of the Western Lunatic Asylum.

Deafness Can't be Cured
by local applications, as they can not reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that we can not cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

The New York Ledger for March 22nd contains the first installment of an Irish story to-day, by Harold Frederic, which will set the hearts of Irishmen on fire. The story is called "The Martyrdom of Maev. The name of the heroine is Maev. She is a beautiful and accomplished girl, and it is her martyrdom, suffered for her lover's sake, which is described. The story is full of intensely interesting incident, and is told with a simplicity and pathos which go straight to the heart.

Here it is, and it fills the bill much better than anything we could say: "It gives me the greatest pleasure to write you in regard to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. During the past winter I have sold more of it than any other kind, and have yet to find any one but what was benefited by taking it. I have never had any medicine in my store that gave such universal satisfaction." J. M. Roney, Druggist, Geuda Springs, Kansas. 50 cent bottles for sale by Buckner Leavell.

Another Mississippi levee was broken and the town of Skipwith, Issaquena county, is under water. The floods came so unexpectedly that many people had to swim for their lives. Half the county will be overflowed. The gap is 400 feet wide and increasing rapidly.

Mr. James Lambert, of New Brunswick, Illinois, says: "I was badly afflicted with rheumatism in the hips and legs, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It cured me in three days. I am all right to-day and would insist on every one who is afflicted with that terrible disease, to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm and get well at once. For sale by Buckner Leavell."

JUDGE JACKSON DEAD.

The Pending Legislative Investigation Abruptly Ended.

Surrounded by all his family, Judge W. L. Jackson, of the Jefferson Circuit Court, died at 3:30 o'clock this morning, and in the flight of the immortal spark a useful citizen, an able jurist, a faithful friend, a loving father and husband, in a word, a grand man passed away from the fields of his labors, his struggles, his triumphs.

Judge Jackson, in addition to his office of Judge of the Jefferson Circuit Court, was also the President of the People's Mutual Assurance Fund, of this city. He carried insurance in this and other companies to a large amount. This will go to his wife. Mrs. Jackson was Miss Sarah E. Croel, and she was married to Judge Jackson in Parkersburg about forty-two years ago. Their children are W. L. Jackson, Jr., Alex. H. Jackson and Mrs. F. J. Holden, who resides at Riverside, near Chicago, but who was here at the time of her father's death.

When Judge Jackson came here, in 1866, he entered into a partnership with Edward Y. Parsons, the brilliant elder brother of the present Commonwealth's Attorney. Mr. Parsons was the only active partner Judge Jackson ever had. In 1873, when Chancellor Cochran died, Gov. Leslie appointed Judge H. W. Bruce, who was then Circuit Judge, to fill the vacancy as Chancellor. At the same time he appointed Judge Jackson to the circuit bench to succeed Judge Bruce, the unexpired term being less than one year. At the succeeding election, in 1874, Judge Jackson was elected without opposition to succeed himself. This was the case again in 1880 and 1886. His present term extended until 1892.

Judge Jackson was a very gallant Confederate soldier and officer, and a meeting of the Confederate Association, of which he was one of the most prominent members, has been called for 8 o'clock this evening, at the Polytechnic Hall. Judge Jackson entered the Confederate service as a private, and after serving in that capacity for a time, during which he distinguished himself, he was appointed to be Colonel of the Thirty-First Virginia Volunteers, C. S. A., by Gov. Letcher. From that place he rose by his gallantry and ability to the rank of Brigadier General. During most of the war he fought under his cousin, "Stonewall" Jackson, and was the last to surrender his command, which he did at Richmond, after Gen. Lee's surrender.—Tuesday's Times.

When the Legislature met Gov. Buckner, in his message, preferred charges of malfeasance in office against Judge Jackson, which charges were inquired into by the House judiciary committee. Two reports were submitted, but a vote was never taken. It was understood however that when the matter did come to a vote in the Assembly Judge Jackson would be vindicated.

R. BURNETT, Atalissa, Iowa.

The iron front in the Boales building, lately burned, has passed through two fires. It was formerly in Mr. G. V. Campbell's grocery store which was, with many other stores, burned in 1882. Mr. Campbell built a better house than his old one and sold the old front to Mr. Boales, who replaced a wooden one with it. It will be used again in the rebuilding of the Boales building. Work on the new house commenced on this new house, the contract having been let to John Orr. It will be 22x33 feet and two stories high, a much longer and better room than the old one. It is also 2 feet wider, one half of a private alley of 4 feet being taken in this time.

He was for many years surveyor of the county and both in official and private relations ever conducted himself so as to command the respect and esteem of his neighbors. Mr. Campbell was a native of this county and had lived here all of his life.

Mr. Marcellus C. Hay, a prominent lawyer and President of the Bank of Greenville, died at 10 o'clock a. m. Tuesday of consumption. Mr. Watterson's Lecture.

The Hon. Henry Watterson, the noted editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, and one of the most famous and aggressive political leaders of the South during the period since the war, will lecture at the Opera House on Thursday evening, April 10. His subject is "Money and Morals," a lecture that has been delivered in the large cities of the country to very large audiences, and with the result of attracting great attention. Mr. Watterson's career as an aggressive and brilliant journalist, his knowledge of politics and the moral tendency of current movements, his universally recognized eloquence and force as an orator, all unite to promise that his lecture is a masterpiece. Mr. Watterson's Southern tour has been undertaken in response to many urgent requests from Southern people who have never heard him speak. He is recognized as Kentucky's ablest orator, and that is a very high position to hold. There is no doubt that he ought to have a large audience.

The O. V.'s Intentions.

[Wednesday's Courier-Journal.]

The Paducah, Nashville and Charleston railroad has been incorporated under the laws of Kentucky. The incorporators are Hon. Benton McMillan, member of Congress from Tennessee, Hon. John E. Washington, member of Congress from Tennessee, W. J. Stone, J. K. Hendricks, J. J. Nall, H. B. Lyon, Charles Reed, Thos. H. Puryear, W. W. Powell, E. P. Noble, George C. Wallace, Warren W. Martin, J. L. James, Jr., J. F. Ford, T. T. Hillman and Myer Weil, of Paducah.

This road is intended to be an extension of the Ohio Valley road to Nashville and Tennessee, is incorporated under the name of the Nashville Northern. About $100,000 has been raised in Nashville towards building the road. The Ohio Valley is completed to Princeton, and is projected to Nashville via Clarksville and Ashland, Tenn. There is some talk of extending the road toward the South after Nashville is reached. Dr. Wm. Morrow, a Nashville capitalist, is taking much interest in the proposed road, which if built will enter Nashville over his belt line, which is composed of the West Nashville and Overland Dummy lines. President Kelley, of the Ohio Valley, was in Nashville some weeks ago and held a conference with Dr. Morrow. The proposed line runs through magnificent coal fields and iron beds, owned by Capt. S. S. Brown and others. There is every probability that the work will be well under way by fall.

"That tired feeling" is entirely overcome by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which gives a feeling of buoyancy and strength to the whole system.

CREAM OF NEWS.

An Elopement.

Mr. Mack S. Perkins and Miss Ellen Williamson, the pretty and petit daughter of Mr. W. T. Williamson, eloped to Clarksville and were married in the parlor of the Arlington Hotel by Rev. Dr. A. D. Sears. They returned home the same afternoon.

"Penny" Turner's Enterprise.

Mr. S. H. Turner, of the South Kentucky Telephone Co., which already has a line to Cadiz, is soliciting the subscription of stock to connect with Trenton, Fairview, Casky and Pembroke. He is meeting with encouraging success and as he succeeds at everything he undertakes the lines will probably be built. These towns ought by all means be connected with this city, in fact it is but a question of time when all of the country towns will have telephone connection. The Cadiz line is making 35 per cent. annually on the stock.

Gracey Hunting Club.

About a dozen young men of the Gracey neighborhood have organized themselves into a hunting club and will take regular practice shooting at clay pigeons to make themselves thoroughly proficient in shooting birds. They have ordered a trap and a large consignment of pigeons and are ready to begin practicing every Saturday afternoon. The membership is as follows: H. H. Bryant, J. J. Reed, P. W. Baker, R. A. Baker, Geo. Harrison, Jno. F. Clardy, John Gaines, Jr., Herbert Cox, T. N. Wadlington, Wm. Page, W. T. Wadlington and Mathews.

The Commercial Club Meets.

The Commercial Club met Tuesday night for the consideration of several important matters.

First and foremost another railroad was discussed. The sentiment was universal in favor of taking active and decisive steps looking to another line. If the O. V. intends to submit another proposition, it must be done at once and not after months of dilly-dallying as heretofore. Any reasonable proposition that looks like business and promises quick work will be accepted by our people.

If the O. V. fails to act the people are determined to have a road and a local company will at once be organized and work set on foot.

The matter of getting a free post-office delivery also came up. Hopkinsville has largely more than the necessary population and last year the cancellation of stamps only fell $400 short of the requisite sum, we are informed. It is safe to estimate that at least $1,000 worth of stamps on letters mailed here are cancelled by the railway mail clerks and if this business could be credited to Hopkinsville we would most assuredly be entitled to the delivery, even under the old law.

The question of making application for a government building was also decided upon.

A Venerable Couple.

Sixty-two years ago to-day (March 25th) Achilles Degraese Sears and Miss Annie B. Bowie, one of the brightest and most charming ladies of Bourbon county, Ky., met under the flower bell and plighted their vows in holy wedlock. It was a beautiful bright day; all nature put on her sweetest smiles as if to lead a charm to the occasion.

Dr. Sears past his eighty-sixth anniversary on the first day of last January, and also commenced the twenty-third year of his pastorate of the First Baptist church in this city. Dr. Penn in his sermon Sunday incidentally referred to the short life of preachers, and said in all of his travels in this country and other nations he had never met a preacher who had attained to so ripe an old age and maintained so great vigor as Dr. Sears, and we here add that his ministry seems to grow stronger as he grows older, always up and going to preaching as regular as any minister in town.

Mrs. Sears is his senior in years. She will be ninety-three the twenty-fifth of next July. She has suffered great affliction with her eyes and has lost the sight of one, but she is still able to look after her domestic affairs, her flowers and attend church regularly. She is quite fond of company and is bright and charming in conversation and repartee.—Clarksville Tobacco-Leaf Chronicle.

Electric Prophylactic.

The above medicine was discovered by Dr. E. C. Anderson, some five years ago, and has since been used by many of the best people in the county and has given universal satisfaction. The demand has become so large that Dr. Anderson concluded to manufacture same for those wishing to test its merits, of which there can be no doubt, since it is sold under a guarantee that if it does not do what it is claimed for it, money will be refunded. In the manufacture and sale of this medicine Dr. Anderson has associated with him Mr. Thos. L. Metcalfe, who will assist in its manufacture and push it for all it is worth.

J. M. Mays, of Clifty, Todd county, brought a load of country produce to the city Tuesday, the largest part of the load being 80 old-fashioned feed baskets made of hickory splits. These baskets were made last winter by the citizens and sold to him for 20 cents apiece. He readily disposed of his load at $3.00 a dozen, the merchants buying most of them.

There is an effort being made by interested parties to put Building and Loan Associations under the control of the Insurance Commissioner of the State. While most of these associations are doubtless run correctly, this step appears to be one in the right direction. We understand that the Building and Loan Association now being organized here has carefully drawn its charter with this end in view.
